

2022 Abstract Submission Instructions

If you are interested in giving an in-person or remote oral presentation, or an online poster presentation, please follow the instructions below for submitting an abstract

(Please note: submitting an abstract does not guarantee you a slot)

Before submitting an abstract, please note:

If your abstract for an oral or poster presentation is accepted:

You must register for the Annual Meeting to complete your acceptance and be put on the Annual Meeting Schedule.

Please follow the deadlines for accepted oral presentations at:

<https://www.aavso.org/annual-meeting-oral-abstracts>

Please follow the deadlines for accepted poster presentations at:

<https://www.aavso.org/annual-meeting-poster-abstracts>

Your presentation must be focused on one of the following topics:

- Variable star research or history
- Astronomy education/diversity in astronomy

In your abstract, include all items described on this checklist:

https://www.aavso.org/sites/default/files/AAVSO%20pdfs/2022_AM.Abstract_checklist.pdf or your abstract will be returned to you. For abstract examples, please go to

<https://www.aavso.org/abstract-examples>

Email your abstract:

as a Word document with a file name and email subject line of “[Your last name]_Abstract22” to Joyce Guzik at joy@lanl.gov and cc Lindsay Ward at Lward@aavso.org by September 4, 2022, 11:59 p.m. ET. (We suggest submitting it early: if revision is requested by the reviewing committee, you may submit a revision, which still must be received by the Sept. 4th deadline).