

Contents

Foreword by Janet Akyüz Mattei	page xi
Preface	xv
1. Parentage and Early Years in Pennsylvania	3
Background	3
Early Years in America	4
Eight Years of Relative Bliss	6
Chess Games	7
“Sunday School” at Home	8
Four Leaf Clovers	9
Hard Times	10
Music Lessons	11
Only a Girl	13
Inherited Genes?	14
2. High School and College Years	16
Early Years in Cambridge	16
College Years	17
3. Harvard College Observatory	21
My First Job	21
Miscellaneous Services on Variable Stars	23
Minkowski’s “Nova”	24
An M.A. Degree	25
A Narrow Escape and Return to Meteors	25
Launched Upon a Ph.D.	27
Overwork?	29
My First Airplane Trip	31
The Harvard Tercentenary	34
My Landlords and Animal Interludes	36

The IAU and My First Trip to Europe	37
A Few Productive Years Before the U.S. Entered WWII	39
4. War Work	41
A Short Stint for the Navy	41
Invitation to BRL, Aberdeen	42
Director vs. Inspector General	44
Last Days in Computing Laboratory	46
Transfer to Ballistic Measurements	47
Work on the V2 Missiles	48
Artificial Meteors?	50
5. Post War Years at Harvard	52
Return to Harvard	52
Family Relationships	54
Four Happy Years Under Shapley	56
Learning to Type	57
Two Hurricanes	58
The Spire and the Cross	59
100 Years of Celestial Photography	60
The Quality of the Plates	61
6. Final Years at Harvard	62
Becoming Persona Non Grata	62
Fates of the Bond Club, the AAVSO, and “News Notes”	64
7. Unwelcome Also on Nantucket	70
In Search of a New Job	70
Miss Harwood’s Major Publication	73
My Early Years on Nantucket	75
1961, A Year of Many Astronomical Meetings	78
8. Approval at Last	81
The Drakes and Dr. Runk	81
Visit to Case Western Reserve and to Prague	83
The Loines Observatory	84

Funding for Students	86
Renovated and New Equipment	86
Solar Eclipses	88
AAVSO Meetings	90
Memorable Meetings in 1969	90
Ups and Downs in 1973–1974	92
School Groups	95
Final Four Years at MMO	96
9. Extracurricular: Hurricanes and Dogs on Nantucket	100
My Most Memorable Nantucket Hurricane	100
My First Nantucket Dog Friend, Geenie	101
Pampi and Susie	102
My Most Protective Dog	103
The New Duke of Wellington	104
10. Summary and Retirement from MMO	106
11. A Difficult Decade	108
Introduction to Yale	108
The Library	109
Miscellaneous Assignments	111
Catalogues of IBM Cards	112
My Incompetence	113
A Workaholic Unappreciated and Misunderstood	114
Handmaiden for Celestial Mechanics	117
An Extension of a Lick Proper Motion Project	118
The First Departmental Christmas Party	119
Two Transition Years	120
12. A New Era	121
Moving Again	121
The New Director	121
Provision for the Future of Yale Astrometry	122
My Retirement at Yale	123

A History of Astronomy at Yale 1701–1968	123
Mother’s Decease	125
Herbert’s Decease—1981	127
13. Memberships and Honors	128
Professional and Academic Organizations	128
An Honorary Grandmother	129
An Assortment of Honors	130
Funding for the Future of MMO	131
Two Honorary Doctor of Science Degrees	131
Anni Mirabiles	132
Connecticut Women’s Hall of Fame	135
Asteroid Dorrit	135
Asteroids Named for Persons in Institutions with Which I Was Associated	136
AAVSO Personnel in the Asteroid Belt	137
Two Tercentenaries	137
CONCLUSION	139
APPENDICES	141
1. Dorrit Hoffleit Bibliography	141
2. Relatives of Dorrit Hoffleit	165
3. Reminiscences	166
REFERENCES	171
INDEX OF NAMES OF PEOPLE	173