Our Companion

Standing next to me is my companion.
Turn to them, look at them.
Look into their eyes, for here is where you look into their soul.
Look at their face. Here is where you see their beauty, their happiness, sadness, joy, and sorrow.
Look at their lips. Here is where you see their smile, hear their voice, share with them a kiss.
Now hold them close, share all of these things with them and remember, never, never, never let them go.
